Counts 10-14

Wire Fraud
18 U.S.C. § 1343

17. The United States incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 3.

The Scheme

18. Beginning in approximately 1999, and continuing through at least February 2015, within the Southern District of California, defendant ROBERT HOLCOMB did knowingly devise and intend to devise, with the intent to defraud, a material scheme and artifice to defraud, and to obtain money and property by means of materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, and by the omission of material facts. The purpose and effect of the scheme was to defraud the United States, by attempting to fraudulently conceal the income of HOLCOMB's clients, by evading HOLCOMB's and his clients' income tax liability, and by defrauding the United States in its revenue collecting capacity.

Method and Means

19. It was the method and means of the scheme that defendant ROBERT HOLCOMB would falsely assure his clients that he was responsible for the taxes on the funds forwarded to his accounts, and

1 those funds could be properly excluded from the income his clients
2 reported on their federal tax returns.

3 20. It was further part of the scheme that defendant ROBERT
4 HOLCOMB would charge his clients a commission ranging from 5 approximately six percent to approximately eleven percent of the 6 total amount of funds they sent to his "trust" accounts.

7 21. It was further part of the scheme that defendant ROBERT
8 HOLCOMB would not actually pay any taxes on the funds sent to his
9 "trust" accounts.

10 22. It was further part of the scheme that defendant ROBERT
11 HOLCOMB would create shell corporations in order to open bank
12 accounts at multiple financial institutions to be used for receiving 13 client funds, returning the funds minus his commission, and 14 concealing his profits from the scheme.

15 23. It was further part of the scheme that defendant ROBERT
16 HOLCOMB would provide false taxpayer identification numbers when he
17 opened bank accounts used in the scheme in order to avoid reporting
18 requirements with the IRS.

19 24. It was further part of the scheme that defendant ROBERT
20 HOLCOMB would cause clients to send him funds, via interstate wire
21 transmission and other means, and he would then transfer the 22 remaining funds back to the clients minus his commission, using the 23 shell corporation bank accounts he controlled.

24 25. It was further part of the scheme that defendant ROBERT
25 HOLCOMB would provide false and misleading financial schedules and 26 other information to his clients, knowing that they would incorporate 27 this false information into their federal income tax returns, provide 28

this false information to the IRS, and defraud the United States in its revenue collecting capacity.
